keynote speeches & seminars
that improve communication & reduce stress!

If you want to find out what's really going on in your organization, don't spend your time in the Board Room - hang out at the water cooler! What might shock you is how your teams are slowly being poisoned. Not by the water - but from the gossip, conflict, and stress that lurk around every corner.

Lose just one person who is demeaned, fed-up or burnt-out, and the cost to your company falls between $40,000.00 and $160,000.00 when you include all of the hidden costs. You have better things to do with your money.

The challenge is to turn damaging trends in your corporate culture around, before their toxic effect is irreparable. Let us help. We will demonstrate that the solution isn't just a matter of one-dimensional training; it must go deeper to touch and enrich the very heart of your organization.

We will help you create a transformation from within and then show you how to maintain your changes with proven reinforcement strategies. Protect your company from a toxic culture, by creating a purposeful culture of trust and collaboration.

Your profitability depends on it.

As the daughter of Candid Camera's Allen Funt, Juliet was raised observing the hidden truths beneath our social selves. She won't hide a camera in your office, but will shine a light on the blind spots holding you back. Juliet's diverse work history has taken many stops: improvisational comedienne and writer, meeting planner and food sculptor, Human Relations trainer for the L.A. Police Department, and even to Israel as a liaison with a Palestinian/Israeli peace project.

Juliet's a speaker, coach, and as many mouths will testify... one heck of a muffin maker.

client comments

"The best ever...many noted on their evaluations."
- Pat Knauss, LA Department of Public Social Services

"Juliet is the gift that keep on giving--satisfied conference participants. We have just opened registration and callers are still praising your keynote from last year, hoping for more. Bottom line--the return on our investment in you exceeded our highest expectations."
- Dr. Bill Braden, Executive Director, KY Counseling Association

"I encourage anyone to employ the talents of Juliet Funt. I guarantee it will be time well spent."
-Mark Anthony Lord, The Walt Disney Company

"The feedback I have received has been excellent. I have been coordinating our Annual District meeting for 12 years and many of our staff felt that this was one of the best presentations we have had."
- Allan Abrams, California Department of Rehabilitation

"The convention was packed with three days of information and presenters and Juliet Funt is the only presenter who I could not wait to tell my colleagues about. I would highly recommend her services."
- Debbie DeHoog, Phi Sigma Sigma National Sorority

"With insightful, fascinating candor, Juliet Funt provides a platform presentation of challenge and beauty. Her message is masterful."
- Naomi Rhode, CPAE Speaker Hall of Fame, Past President National Speakers Association

"If you recorded it...it would sell millions!"
- Dixie Landau, Kentucky Valley Dept. of Adult Education

gossip and other toxic words: communication skills

Are your employees being poisoned? They may be...with words. Because gossip, blaming, harassment and over-promising are just a few of the verbal hazards that slip by even the finest of communicators. On the flip side, praise and constructive feedback go un-said. These bad habits erode productivity, focus, and employee retention. You pay the price in compromised talent, team strength, and even legal fees.

Stop this water-cooler combat now!

overcommitted, overwhelmed, and over it !! stress management

If there was an energy leak in your office would you fix it? Well there is, because the National Council for Compensation Insurance estimated that in 2001 U.S. companies averaged $26 billion dollars spent on stress related disability. If you are concerned that your managers and staff are more burnt-out than on-fire, then work-life balance is a crucial skill you must develop in them.
